

AMONG OUR ADVERTISERS.

How the Daily News' Best Patrons Are Prospering.

Through Its Efforts a Reaction Has Succeeded the Lull After the Holiday Days, and Business is Seeking Those Who Invite It Through the Columns of The News.

Cohen, Friedman & Co. are receiving and displaying all the latest novelties in spring goods. They have a new trimmer in their millinery department who is an expert and she is busily engaged getting ready for the opening.

I. Gugenheim is still offering some of the most attractive bargains of the day in shoes.

The Levy-Pott Co. is making a drive in trousers. You can get a style from them at prices that defy competition. Just read their advertisement in this issue and I will make you want to see these trousers.

F. E. Brawner, the one-price man, is still giving so many good for a dollar that one naturally wonders how he does it. A call at his store will convince you that you are in the right place.

Wm. Johnson & Son make another tempting offer on seasonable goods in their regular advertising space today. They have an immense stock of almost anything you can call for.

Hall & Klein are giving their numerous customers the choicest groceries at the lowest prices. Call and see their stock.

Read the local notice of C. H. Gonzalez & Son in this issue.

Marston & Finch have a number of local reading notices in this issue.

Mr. Schwartz, proprietor of the People's Store, is selling fresh, new goods at a closer margin of profit than ever before and he is consequently doing a rushing business. His stock is complete and his politeness to his customers is a thing to be proud of. He has many attractive novelties they have to offer.

Sol Cahn & Co. have one of the neatest and most attractive grocery stores in Pensacola. They carry a fine stock of all sorts of dainties and they sell them at very reasonable prices. Ask them to show you those latest delicacies for Sunday dinner. O. M. Pryor's Bargain Furniture House can supply your needs.

The Forbes store never lets a single week go by without having something new to offer the public at bargain prices. They have several new things on sale now at awfully low prices. Just call there and inspect their stock.

Quite a number of local reading notices appear in this issue telling of special bargains offered by various business firms. Read all of them.

The millinery opening of Bowers & Kruse is advertised in this issue.

Rader, the furniture man, wants you to let him quote you prices.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how a slave was made of him. He says: "My wife has been helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and is able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by W. A. D'Alemberte, Druggist.

LYNCHING IN TENNESSEE.

Negro Witness in Murder Case Is Hanged by a Mob.

RIPLEY, Tenn., March 23.—This morning in the heart of the city the body of a negro, Louis Rice, was found dangling from a limb of a tree.

The lynching grew out of a trial in the circuit court of Lauderdale county, during the course of which Rice testified in favor of one of his color, who was charged with the murder of a white man named Goodrich.

Date Postponed.

ATHENS, Ga., March 23.—The annual debate between the University of North Carolina and the University of Georgia has been postponed until April 6 by request of North Carolina. The subject for debate is: "The English in South Africa; Is Their Conquest Justifiable?" Georgia defends the natives. R. Hume Smith and Emory Weddington will represent Georgia. Both are speakers of recognized merit.

To Relieve the Labor Famine.

BERLIN, March 23.—The Agrarians are discussing ways and means of persuading the government to aid in relieving the farm labor famine. The agricultural chamber proposes that the government should appropriate a large sum for settling laborers in the country and asks 20,000,000 marks as a beginning for Silesia alone.

"Murder will out." Impurities in the blood will also be sure to show themselves unless expelled by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Nothing so set off a home as handsome furniture. Marston & Finch have an immense stock for you to select from and they will sell it to you on long time and easy payments.

BLOODY WORK OF A NEGRO.

He Murders a Woman and Her Five Little Children.

HALEIGH, March 23.—Early this morning, at Garner's, 5 miles east of this city, Tom Jones, a negro commonly known in the county as "Preacher" Jones, murdered Ella Jones and her eldest daughter, Ida Jones, and then set fire to the bed in which the bodies of the murdered victims and four others, all children ranging in years from a baby 1 month old to the largest boy, who was not more than 5 years of age. The house was completely destroyed by fire.

The dead are: Ella Jones, the mother, aged 33. Ida Jones, 13 years old. Josie Jones, 3 years old. Nancy Jones, 3 years old. Clever Jones, 2 years old. An unnamed baby, 1 month old. Jones has been arrested and lodged in jail.

BURKS HAS SKIPPED TOWN.

Leaves a Girl and Numerous Creditors to Mourn His Departure.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 23.—J. H. Burks, a well known young man in business and social circles, has skipped town, leaving behind a large number of creditors, an unpaid board bill and a beautiful Montgomery belle to whom he was engaged to be married.

Burks came here from Brunswick, Ga., seven months ago. He brought with him high recommendations both as to his character and business qualifications. His good looks and winning manners carried him a long way and he received the hand of welcome everywhere. Not long after his arrival in social circles here he met a beautiful young girl, who is a decided favorite in society. He fell in love with her, and when he asked for her hand in marriage it was granted. Rumor has it that the date of the marriage was set for next month.

MISS ELIZABETH VAN LEW.

Noted Federal Spy Is Critically Ill in Richmond.

RICHMOND, March 23.—Miss Elizabeth Van Lew, whose loyalty to the Union cause during the civil war attracted the attention of General Grant, is quite ill here. The devotion of Miss Van Lew to the federal soldiers and the aid rendered her in the case of General Grant, when he became president, to appoint Miss Van Lew postmistress of the capital of the confederacy. This lady not only rendered valuable assistance to the federal officers who tunneled their way out of old Libby prison here, but kept General Grant informed of many important movements in Richmond during the war.

Important Industry Revived.

SANFORD, Fla., March 23.—Henry Green, a wealthy lumber dealer of Boston, and a winter resident of Altamonte Springs, has purchased the Sanford Novelty works, owned by George W. Middlekauff, and will immediately commence to operate them. Mr. Green purchased the Dunkel mill property last week, and the novelty works will be run in connection with the mill. This will revive an important industry in Sanford on a large scale, as the entire product will be shipped to Mr. Green's lumber yards in Boston.

Florida Farmers' Institute.

LAKE CITY, Fla., March 23.—Arrangements are being made for a state farmers' institute, to be held here on April 4, 5 and 6, to close the present institute season. Each day will be devoted to a distinct class of subjects, so that persons need not disperse to spend three days may see the day in which they are particularly interested. All railroads in the state will furnish roundtrip tickets for one fare, and hotels in Lake City will greatly reduce regular prices. The public is cordially invited to attend.

New Hotel For Aiken.

AIKEN, S. C., March 23.—Aiken is to have a new hotel. The new hotel will go upon the Poznanski property, located on the northeast corner of Park avenue and Chesterfield street. The size of the hotel has not yet been determined on, but it will contain not less than 70 bed rooms, 25 or 30 parlors and as many bath rooms, arranged in suites, and that it will be an up-to-date, high-class hotel. The hotel will be built by Mr. W. R. Travers and Mr. H. H. Hounsell, Jr., and will cost about $100,000.

Shot the Show Man.

DOTHAN, Ala., March 23.—Lee Deal, a young white man living here, shot the manager of George's show during the performance. Deal had some trouble with him and about the time the performance was winding up, Deal shot the man twice, both shots entering the man's side. Deal was arrested by the sheriff and put in jail. It is thought his victim will die.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill. For Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEARKE, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie Bedford county, Pa. For sale by H. H. Nathan Bros., 21 South Palatka street.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Escambia county at the office of Judge T. R. McCullagh, at the court house, at 7:30 p. m., on Thursday, the 29th day of March, 1900, to consider the qualification of voters at the coming primary election.

C. B. PARKHILL, Chairman.

DAN MURPHY, Secretary.

Day Blown to Atoms.

ROCKWOOD, Tenn., March 23.—Frank Day, a white laborer who was at work on the Tennessee Central railroad, attempted to dig a dynamite cartridge from a drill hole that had failed to explode. The cartridge exploded and Day was blown to atoms, it being difficult to find enough of the remains for burial.

Town Destroyed by Fire.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 23.—Kunkanook, a town of 1,000 inhabitants, at the terminus of the Crows Nest pass and Nelson and Bellington lines of railway, has been destroyed by fire, rendering the most of the people destitute, whose wants are being supplied by citizens of neighboring towns.

New Railroad Projected.

CHERAW, S. C., March 23.—The projected railroad from here to Luncaster has been placed in the hands of Stevenson and Matheson, attorneys for the road, who have gotten out a prospectus and are making an effort to finance it, so as to secure the early completion of this important line.

Brode and Conqueror Matched.

MEMPHIS, March 23.—Captain C. A. Tilles, the well known turfman, is in Memphis. He has arranged a match race between F. W. Brode, the Schorr's crack California campaigner, and Paddy Tomlinson's pet colt, The Conqueror, for a $500 purse.

Carolina Cotton Mill Chartered.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 23.—The Columbia cotton mill at Bradley, Abbeville county, has just been incorporated. The capital stock is $100,000, with privilege to increase to $250,000.
